MORGAN PARK MILITARY ACADEMY

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

1873 . . . 80th Anniversary, M.P.M.A. 1953

1833 . . . 120th Anniversary, Chicago . . . 1953

The editors wish to dedicate this anniversary issue to the great city of Chicago, in which Morgan Park Military Academy is located.

Chicago was incorporated as a village in 1833. In 1850, the city boasted a population of 30,000. In 1871, the great Chicago fire destroyed $196,000,000 of property. 300 inhabitants were killed and 90,000 were left homeless. Chicagoans were not discouraged despite this great calamity, and the city was quickly rebuilt.

In 1893, Chicago was the seat of the World's Columbian Exposition, celebrating the 400th Anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America.

The Century of Progress Exposition was held in Chicago in 1933-34.

With a population of approximately 4,000,000, Chicago is the second largest city in the United States. Chicago is the greatest livestock and meat packing center in the world, the largest railroad center, and the most important grain market in the world. The "Windy City" is one of the largest financial centers of the world. The Conrad Hilton is the largest hotel in the world. The Merchandise Mart has more floor space than any building in the world, except the Pentagon Building. The Marshall Field & Company retail store, one block square, is one of the largest stores in the world.

Today, Chicago stands poised and mature, a monument to civic pride crowning the Middle West, holding the key to the vast golden prairies surrounding it.

THE ACADEMY . . . .

. . . AND CHICAGO

HAVE GROWN AND CHANGED WITH THE YEARS

The editors wish to bring back nostalgic memories of the Academy at the turn of the century in the following pages. The remainder of this publication is devoted to depicting the magnitude of the city of Chicago.

Since the growth of the Academy has been synonymous with that of Chicago, it is only fitting to present a few historical facts regarding the former.

In 1873, just two years after the Chicago fire, the Academy was founded. In 1892, the Academy became affiliated with the University of Chicago. The institution was coeducational until 1900. In 1907, the Academy became a military school.

Park Hall and Morgan Hall, two of the original buildings have disappeared from the scene. East Hall, West Hall, and the Gymnasium were built during the years 1897-1900. Alumni Hall and Hansen Hall were constructed during the years 1927-31.

After 80 years, it is quite evident that the Morgan Park Military Academy will always play an integral role in the Chicago scene.

TO THE CLASS OF 1953:

A "new day" is dawning for the members of the Class of 1953. The prospects are bright. The opportunities are challenging and worthy of serious application. The years spent at this Academy have provided for most graduates strong foundations for the tasks ahead.

As he assumes the heavy responsibilities of young manhood, may each graduate train his sights on the higher hills. May his objectives include the perpetuation of sincere friendships already established, the adding of new friends with high purpose, industrious application to the job that he elects to do, fearless acknowledgment of the value of the right things in life, an appreciation of the sense of humor and the power of laughter, and a realization of the presence of God. And may each one have the patience to wait for the coming of these things, with the wisdom to know them when they come.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The month of June marks the completion of four years of successful academic, athletic, military, and social activities for the graduating class of 1953. The Seniors equalled the fine standards and traditions established by their predecessors.

Scholastically, the class was headed by Tom Boyd, Richard Brown, William Sadd, Lenox Buchanan, Peter Rosi, and Peter Stogis.

GRENADIERS

The Grenadiers, the Academy crack drill team, received many invitations to perform during the year.

The Grenadiers gave their first performance of the year at the Marine Day Celebration in the Civic Opera House, before a gathering of 2000. Late in December, the drill team gave a performance at the Army-Navy Ball, held at the Palmer House. In February, the Reserve Officer Association invited the Grenadiers to perform at the Lake Shore Athletic Club. The Grenadiers also gave performances before the Mothers' Club and during the Federal Inspection.

Captain Lowell Brock served as advisor for the team. Leader of the Grenadiers was Cadet Major William Sadd. The Guidon bearer was Cadet Captain Gislason.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The MPMA Varsity improved on its 1951 record by winning 3 games, tying 2, and losing 4. The Warriors, captained by John Gislason and Bill Westenberger, played inspiring football on many occasions. Harry Karzas and Tom Keating played brilliant defensive football at the end positions. Bill Westenberger, Bob Larson, and Don Dybalski held down the defensive and offensive tackle shots. Pete Voss was a steady influence at center throughout the season. John Gislason, Al Bilbert, Bill Craske, and Larry Poullman rounded out the offensive backfield unit.

John Gislason was the leading scorer for the Warriors, while Al Gilbert had the best rushing average.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The MPMA cagers suffered a disasterous season in winning only four of eighteen games. The Maroon and White were greatly handicapped throughout the season by a lack of height and experience.

Captain Tom Keating, at 6' 1", was the tallest Warrior. Keating, graduated at the semester, manned the center post. Bud Leonard, also graduated at the semester, played one of the guard positions. Al Gilbert, captain-elect, played the other guard position. Bob Larsen and Julian Zedeno held down the forward positions.

In addition to the above-mentioned, Frank Caravette, Ron Loomis, Ken Koester, and Roger Peterson won Varsity letters. George Pappas was the manager of the team.

The exclusive National Honor Society maintained its traditional role of having the most elite membership on the campus.

Cadets are eligible for membership in the organization if they maintain a thirteen point average scholastically, and exhibit qualities of leadership. In addition, membership is restricted to members of the junior and senior classes.

The members tutored many cadets having scholastic problems. The club also aided the school in assisting with many of the clerical tasks.

DADS' DAY

Cadets and their dads participated in Dads' Day activities at the Academy last October 18th. The day began with a football game between the Academy and George Rogers Clark High School.

Following the game, the Dads held a short business meeting in Upper Hall. As evening approached, the dads and sons assembled in the gym for a buffet supper. They were welcomed by Cadet Colonel Bill Nuenke. Mr. A. G. Gislason replied for the fathers. The guest speaker was Ed Springle, defensive end for the Chicago Bears. The festivities came to a close with entertainment by the Alice Chilton group.

Music was furnished by Lane Emery and his Orchestra.

Al—

Life at MPMA is a lot happier and much more fun when you're around. Knowing you the way I do, life anywhere would be more fun with you there. I hope that I can be your friend always—that is, I hope I'm worthy of your friendship. There never was anyone like you, and there never will be anyone as grand a guy as Al Gilbert.

"Tri" Boys Only

Al,

Almost everyone tells you that you're a great guy. They all mean it, but they don't know that you're better than great. There aren't really any words to describe you. At least I can't think of them now.

It may sound queer, but I more than like you. When something happens to you, the same thing seems to be happening to me — or so I feel.

you've helped me out more than once.

The party at Marty's the 20th of December, 1952.

And I want to help you whenever I can, and give you anything I can.

I could go on for a few more books, but I think you know what I think of you, and what I feel for you ——— Remember me always
